RULES

Rules & Regulations

Trailblazers Qualifiers : To gain a Qualification Card for the Trailblazers Second Round Show Jumping, you need to jump one DOUBLE Clear. For the Dressage you need to score 58% or more. You will then receive a second round "congratulation" sheet, that then needs to be returned by post within 14 days, with payments for £12.00. You will then receive a second round card, which allows you to take part in any second round at the same level, within that current year.

Junior Sections : Junior Riders should not have had their 17th Birthday by the time of the Championship, (normally August). Junior riders must not ride a pony bigger than 14:2hh. If a junior rides a horse bigger than 14:2hh, then they must compete in the senior section.

Senior Section : Senior Riders are any persons riding a horse bigger than 14:2hh, or any one older than 17 years on the date of championship. Senior riders can not ride a horse smaller than 14:2hh

Beginner Classes : These Classes are open to any age of rider/horse, that are starting show jumping. Once you have won at one height you MUST move to the next height in the following season.

Have a go dressage: These tests are open to any age horses/rider, that wants to have a go at dressage. Some of the tests don't have any canter. So ideal for young horses. H1, H2, H3, H4 & H5 are all part of the "HAVE A GO DRESSAGE" and can be obtained from the secretary at Hargate arena, please send SAE.

Notes : Clear round entitles you to one round of fences only. If you would like to spend more time in the arena, please call on 01283 734981 to hire. £20.00 per horse. Times for dressage are given out prior to the show on 01283 734981 Between 3pm & 5pm or on the web site.

ROR Qualifiers :

Horse must be registered with ROR, You can qualify for ROR 75cm showjumping or ROR combined training (Prelim & 65cm) at Hargate. To Qualify for ROR combined training you need to be placed within the first 5 competitors. To Qualify for ROR SJ you need to obtain a trailblazers 75cm double clear. You can receive your ROR qualification pack from the Hargate Secretary.
